

1

1

Formation

The diagram illustrates a football field layout for a play. A thick black horizontal line across the middle is labeled "LINE OF SCRIMMAGE". Above this line, the field is marked with yard lines from 5 to 15. A red dashed line is positioned 7 yards from the line of scrimmage and is labeled "RUSH LINE 7 YD". Grey dots, representing players, are distributed across the field. In the top half, there are 10 dots per yard line, with additional dots between yard lines. In the bottom half, there are 10 dots per yard line, with additional dots between yard lines. The dots are arranged in a grid pattern, with 10 dots per yard line and 10 dots between yard lines.

Notes:

Formation

The diagram shows a football field with yard lines every 5 yards, labeled 5, 10, and 15. A thick black line at the bottom is labeled "LINE OF SCRIMMAGE". A red dashed line is labeled "RUSH LINE 7 YD". A vertical line is drawn at the 50-yard mark. Grey dots representing players are positioned on the field. On the 7-yard line, there are 11 grey dots: 7 on the left side of the 50-yard line and 4 on the right side. On the 10-yard line, there are 11 grey dots: 7 on the left side of the 50-yard line and 4 on the right side. On the 15-yard line, there are 11 grey dots: 7 on the left side of the 50-yard line and 4 on the right side. On the 50-yard line, there are 11 grey dots: 7 on the left side and 4 on the right side. On the 5-yard line, there are 11 grey dots: 7 on the left side of the 50-yard line and 4 on the right side.

Notes:

Formation

The diagram shows a football field with yard lines every 5 yards. The 'LINE OF SCRIMMAGE' is marked at the 0-yard line. A 'RUSH LINE 7 YD' is marked at the 7-yard line. The field is divided into two halves by a center line. The top half is labeled '15', '10', and '5' on the left side. The bottom half is labeled '5' on the left side. A vertical line with a tick mark is positioned at the 5-yard line in the bottom half. The field is populated with small grey dots representing players, and red arrows indicating the direction of the rush.

Notes:

Formation

The diagram illustrates a portion of a football field. A solid black horizontal line is labeled "LINE OF SCRIMMAGE" on the left. Above this line, a red dashed horizontal line is labeled "RUSH LINE 7 YD" on the right. The field is marked with a grid of small dots. On the left side, there are numerical labels: "15" at the top, "10" below it, "5" below that, and "5" at the bottom. A vertical tick mark is present on the solid black line.

Notes:

7v7 play sheet · 6 per page

One dot = one yard. Players: Q C X Y Z H R. The red line is the 7-yard rush line used in NFL FLAG style rules; ignore it if your league has no rusher.

Q X

Offense

▼

Defense

→

Pass route

→

Ball carrier

→

Fake

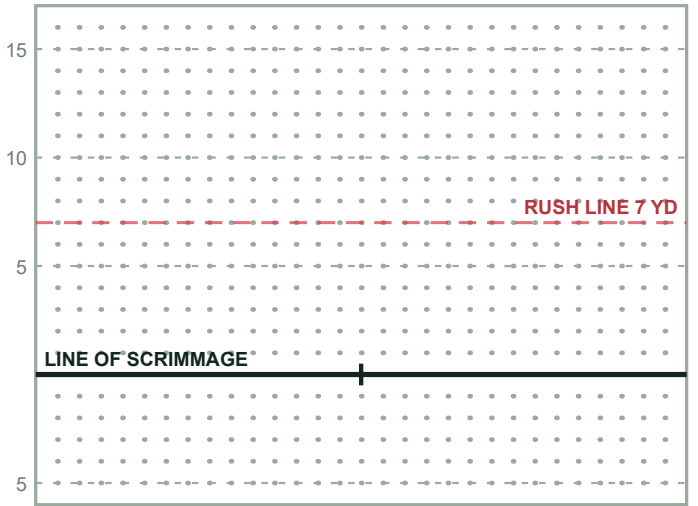

→

Handoff

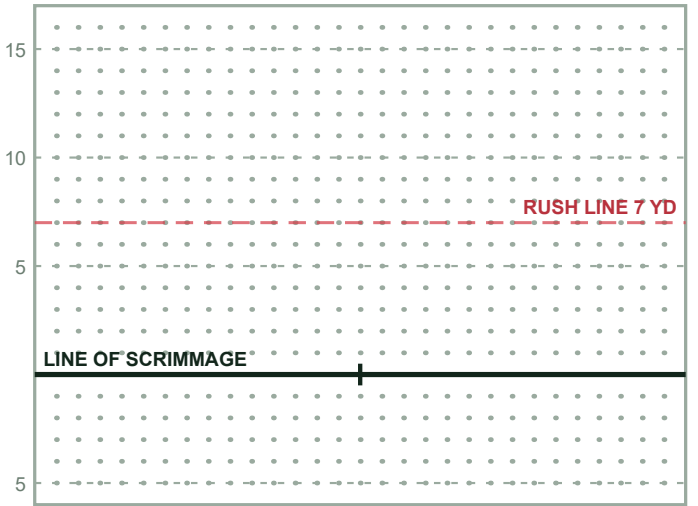

1

QB read order

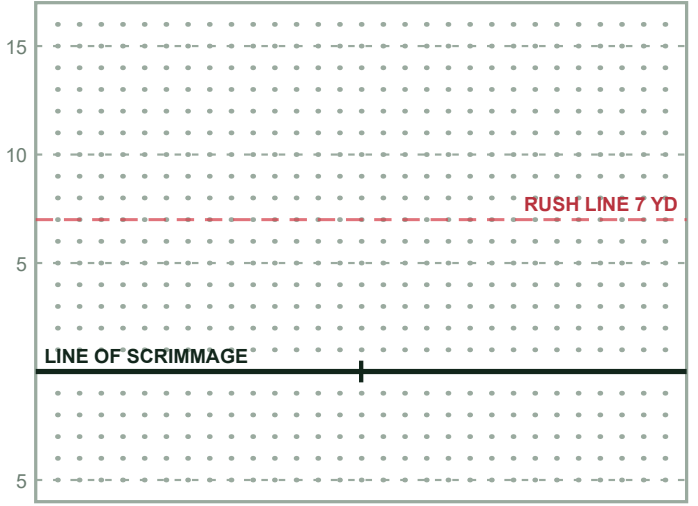

Play name / # Formation

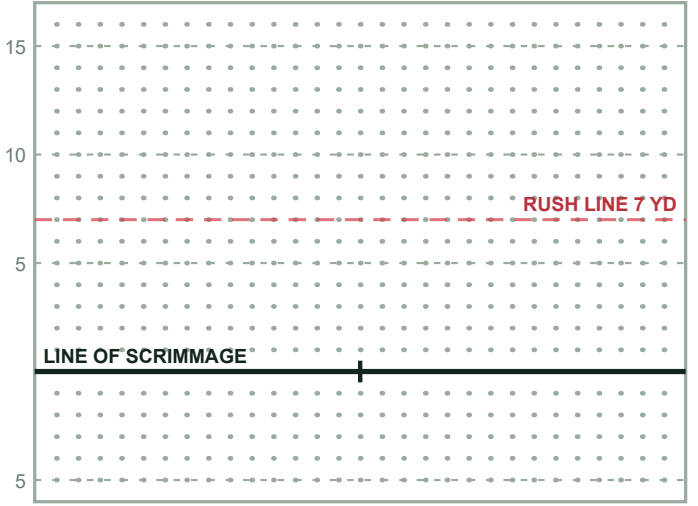

Play name / # Formation

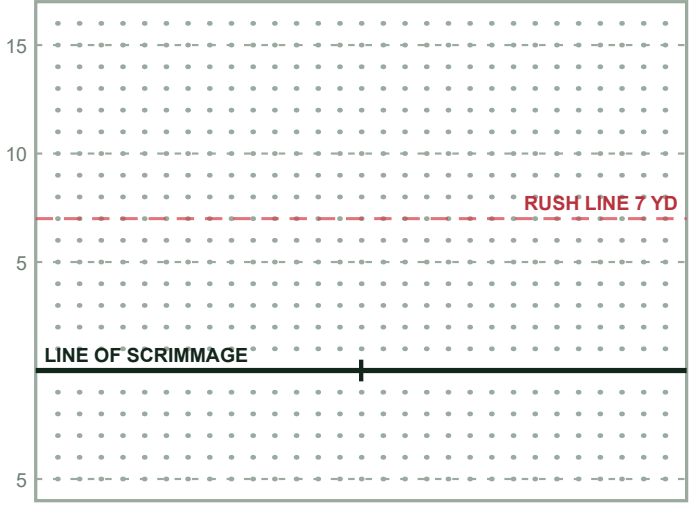

Play name / # Formation

Play name / # Formation

Play name / # Formation

Play name / # Formation

